Application Support Specialist

Application Support Specialist required with experience of Windows Server, IIS, & SQL and ideally but no essentially MS Biztalk, for a leading financial services organisation. Application Support function provides Application Support services to an IT Shared Service Centre's internal and external customers to agreed service and operating levels. Application Support Specialist main responsibilities of the role are: * Ensuring that Incidents reported through the Service Desk are resolved within t

read full article